

Trinitas School of Nursing
NURE 130 Application Fall 2018

Students enrolled in Union County College as a Trinitas School of Nursing (EGHN) major are required to submit a NURE 130 Application to be considered for enrollment into the Generic RN Track. The NURE 130 application will provide the information that is necessary to determine eligibility for course enrollment.

Acceptance into NURE 130 does not guarantee enrollment in future clinical nursing courses. Please note, students that hold a Practical Nursing License (LPN) are not eligible to register for NURE 130. LPN's may email Associate Dean Santee at santee@ucc.edu for information regarding registration into the LPN -RN Track.

In order to be considered for NURE 130 enrollment, applicants will need to meet the minimum eligibility requirements listed in the table below. This table is designed to help you determine if you are meeting all NURE 130 enrollment requirements.

If you circle no for any of the requirements listed, please review the information on the corresponding Explanation page for additional information

Explanation of NURE 130 Admission Decisions – Fall 2018

Registration for NURE 130 is by invitation only. NURE 130 registration invitations are based on:

- The applicant meeting all minimum enrollment requirements to register for NURE 130.
- The number of NURE 130 seats available for the semester.
 - There are a limited number of NURE 130 seats available for qualified applicants each semester.

A note to transfer applicants:

- While transfer credits are accepted, students who have taken nursing curriculum courses at Union County College will have priority ranking for admission into NURE 130. This is based on the Union County College GPA and quality (grade) point calculation used for NURE 130 admission decisions.
- Transfer applicants with two or more failures in a nursing course at another institution will not be considered for NURE 130 admission.
 - A nursing failure is defined as a grade of C or below or a numerical grade less than 75.

A note to NURE 130 re-entry applicants:

- There are a limited number of NURE 130 re-entry seats available each semester.
- The minimum GPA requirement for NURE 130 re-entry is 2.5.
- There is no guarantee of re-entry into NURE 130.
