SNA: Summer Updates and Reminders

The officers and class representatives of the SNA hope that you're all enjoying your time off this summer (except for the students in the LPN-RN track who are now in their pediatric rotation for summer session II).

When you return in September, you'll see some updates to the 3rd floor. Some additional furniture has been added to the elevator lobby area and a small amount of construction has created a new study space in the room across from the Learning Simulation Center. This area can be used for group studying when it is not being used for math tutoring or simulation debriefing. The process for requesting/accessing this area will be defined and made available to students at the start of the fall semester.

The SNA wants to remind all students that while relaxing in the summer is great, this time can also be used to get a foot hold on preparing for the upcoming semester.

- Textbooks – Read ahead: Enough said
- ATI – access to ATI remains available to all students. Review previous practice tests, take a variety of “quiz bank” tests available in the “Learning System RN”, view skill videos, and review pharmacology and math modules. Most of these modules have challenge questions
- UCC Library “Streaming Nursing Videos” can be accessed from home. Review pathophysiology, or preview specialty videos before classes begin (100's of videos) available
 - Sign into the Owlsnest using your usual username and password and go to the home library page found under the “Academics” tab
 - Under the “Find” tab, click the link for Streaming Nursing Videos (MEDCOM) Login required
 - When you click this link, another log in page will appear. Again enter your Owlsnest username and password
 - MEDCOM login appears: Username is unioncc and Password is campus132
- Visit the Student Nurses Association: Helpful Tools module in the TSON:COMM Canvas Shell. This shell is available to all TSON students. Lots of helpful information and tools to improve your grades

Leiberman Humanism in Health Care Awards

On July 17th, two of our current students were nominated and received the 2017 Humanism in Health Care Award. They received $1000.00 and a beautiful plaque. It was a wonderful event and a great honor for our students.
