

TEAS Registration and ATI Online Store Has Launched!

New and improved. We recently informed you that a new and improved TEAS registration experience and ATI online store were coming soon. And now, we're excited to share they have launched!

Note: If your institution does not currently utilize the ATI registration process, your existing registration process will not change.

Here are the resources your applicants need for the transition.

Registration guides: The new experience brings a simplified and easier-to-navigate TEAS registration process. However, ensure that your program and its applicants are prepared for the changes, we've put together links for student-facing registration guides for each TEAS testing method. Right click on the links below and choose "Open hyperlink".

has been updated to include the new registration guides, in addition to the must-know exam information and FAQs.

Easy-to-use online store: The ATI online store has also undergone an improved user experience. Students will be able to easily register for the TEAS exam, quickly create an account, explore, and purchase TEAS prep products, send their TEAS transcript to multiple institutions using Transcript Credits, and more.

to explore the new student experience.

Note about the Transition: As with any new launch of this magnitude, there will be challenges along the way. The ATI team is working tirelessly to ensure this transition is as seamless as possible, and our customer service team is ready and already assisting students through this change. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any concerns or feedback you may have. We appreciate your patience and partnership!
